

1. This essay will show that the different of spoken english and written english.
2. Some people like speak fast so they will try to make the sentence is shorter.
3. There are a lot of interesting things about conversational and writing English that everyone need to know in order to avoid mistakes.
4. Although they have some similar, the discrepancies between these two ways of expression are distinct.
5. Do not expect yourself to assimilate into the new language immediately. It needs time, constantly practice is helpful.
6. Moreover, the spelling and pronunciation are often significant different.
7. International students are often confused about the difference between spoken and write English in an appropriated form.

8. Firstly, we are incredibly different between writing and conversation.
9. To sum up, differences and similarities are essential to language that helps people thinking, speaking, writing.
10. There are some similar of both written and spoken English. People can easy understand.